The people of southern Nevada should be proud in having John H. Müller head the state ticket. assured that if elected to the high office to which he ispires, be will see we receive our just dues and at the same time not be neglectful of other sections. Mr. Miller is gaining in popularity from day to day. He is a that establishes warm Triendships and those Triendships are as lasting as time. Bling true westerner he is to be d pended upon to do just exactly what he says and this resount for his faculty of muintaining friendships. There is no guess work concerning Mr. Miller. You know just where to find him and you can place your hand upon him when he is wanted. As a governor the Bonanza feels confident he will not be found want ing, but that he will prove a power for the upbuilding of the state and bring it into great favor among the investing pub-We believe that if he is elected as the chief executive of Nevada an era of prosperity will quickly develop that will prove a genuine revelation. Capital from outside sectoins will feel safe in investing in this state simply because the men of wealth have confidence in Mr. Milller and feel certain their interests will at all times be protected.
